

ARTICLE 15

Foreign Electricity

No other source of supply of electricity shall be introduced or used by any member in conjunction with electric service unless a double pole, double throw switch is installed to connect the stand-by generator to the member's system. However, interconnected accounts will be subject to the "Interconnect and Parallel Operation of Distributed Generation" policy that follows.